

CASSIDY AND THE MORMONS.

The Winnemucca Silver State, commenting upon the announcement that Congressman Cassidy intended to re-introduce the measure originally presented by him to compel Mormons to make public records of their marriages and to disfranchise women in Utah, hopes that he will not disfranchise the women. The Eureka Sentinel, Mr. Cassidy's paper, through Mr. Sessions, the editor, properly retorts that "mild remedies do not reach the source of the evil. Better disfranchise a few Gentile women in order to disfranchise a multitude of Mormon 'wives,' than hesitate to lay the ax at the root of the tree. Heroic treatment, as the physicians say, is indispensable. Trifling with the disease only makes it worse." The JOURNAL, however, desires to refer to another portion of the Silver State article, which reads as follows:

While Mr. Cassidy owes nothing to the Mormons, who used money in the election a year ago to defeat him, it is to be hoped that he will not press the passage of a bill to disfranchise the women of Utah.

It was well enough, probably, for the Democratic friends of Mr. Cassidy, previous to the late election, to make capital for him out of his record on the Mormon question, and to do this it was frequently asserted that the Mormons intended to use money to defeat him. But it will not do now, and it shall not be done without being characterized as a falsehood, to assert that "the Mormons used money in the election a year ago to defeat him." If the Mormons used money to defeat Cassidy that money must have been used to advance Powning's election. And it is a lie that the Mormons, or any other class, or any person or persons, expended any money to secure votes for Powning. Every dollar expended for him was his own, and whatever money he paid out was for his assessment of $750 and the legitimate expenses of the campaign. If money was used by the Mormons or anybody else to defeat either Congressional nominee it was used to defeat Powning and not Cassidy. That the Mormons did not use money to defeat Cassidy is evidenced by the fact that nearly all of them at Pansoa and Bullionville voted for him. The Mormons out in Lincoln county are Democrats. Of the 127 voters of that faith there are but two Republicans. They are Democrats, and they voted their ticket. They knew full well that Powning had no sympathy with their peculiar institutions. True, Cassidy and his party, were afraid they might want to "cinch" him for his action, and this fear so grew upon certain Democrats that it was arranged that a certain Mormon Democrat at Pioche should have $500 to go to Pansoa on election day and buy votes for Cassidy. Yet we do not believe the money was ever given him. But that is neither here nor there now. The object of this is to relieve the public mind from such an impression as might be created by such an assertion as the Silver State makes, for if the Mormons used money to defeat Cassidy, it might be implied that somebody else used money to get votes for Powning, when the truth is that whatever money was used for such a nefarious purpose was expended to promote and secure Mr. Cassidy's election. It is a well known fact that while Powning could barely scrape together enough of the filthy lucre to make a decent canvass, Mr. Cassidy had plenty of money. Mr. Fair, "and he himself has said it," gave him a small $5,000 check to aid the cause. In Virginia City, on election day, prominent Democrats confessed that they had money to use for Cassidy and Adams. In Eureka Sadler had a $10,000 sack to use for the benefit of the "pool" nominees on the State and county tickets. We are not claiming that Mr. Cassidy's election was secured by the use of money. Had he been as poor as Powning he would probably have been elected. He might not have had quite as large a majority, but the Certificate used would have looked just as pretty. Mr. Cassidy had made a good record. He had been attentive to his duties, and vigilant in looking after the interests of his constituents. We think they made a slight mistake in re-electing him, for if this scribe had got in, he would have made it a point to have sent out a librar where Cassidy sent a book, and nearly a farm and garden where Cassidy sent an Agricultural report or a package of French seeds. But the people no doubt thought a bird in the hand was worth two in the bush and that was their privilege. But we have heard enough of this campaign clap-trap from the Democracy about the Mormon racket, and "My Dear Hubbard." The inside or outside of the late Congressional fight is a subject for discussion for those who feel like it, but the campaign is over, and this late Republican nominee is still alive and well; and will see to it that our Democratic brethren shall not stray far from the truth.

ANCHORED AT LAST.

The grand (?) old Democratic party, which, for more than fifteen years has been floating about in the political pool, not unlike a ship in mid ocean with a cowardly Captain and a crazy crew, aimlessly floundering about on all sides of all questions, too weak to adopt a course and too cowardly to follow one when given, has at last nailed its colors to the mast and struck out a definite course with "free trade" for its motto. The contest for the Speakership was based on the issue of free trade against protection, and the election of Carlisle, who is an acknowledged leader of the free trade element in the Democratic party, is a pronounced commitment of the party to that policy. That this was the real issue in the Speakership fight is shown by the remarks of Mr. Carlisle to the caucus that nominated him. In thanking the caucus for the nomination he said: "If this had been a mere personal contest between me and either of the three distinguished gentlemen whose names were mentioned in connection with this nomination, I should have had but little hope of success." This settles the question as to the main issue of the next Presidential campaign. The die is cast, and irrevocably committed as the party now is to the damnable heresy of free trade, it must go before the people in 1884, for it will be too late to back down between now and the opening of the canvass, should its mistake be discovered. The election of Speaker Carlisle means a walk-over for the Republican candidate for President in 1884.

AN HONORABLE SCAR.

Denis Nevin, the Treasurer of Storey county, writing under the pen-name given him by the Enterprise, publishes a card in the Chronicle, in which he covertly intimates that the bullet scar in Col. Shaw's back was received while cowardly retreating from Mr. Nevin's political friends at the battle of Chickamauga, whereupon Col. Shaw immediately commended the falsehood down by publishing General Oddyke's commendation of his bravery on that bloody battle field, and clinched the matter by showing that the General mentioned him for promotion for his good conduct during that fight; whereupon Nevin is silenced, and forever should hold his peace.

Indebtedness Settled.

The Battle Mountain Messenger says Capt. C. B. Dahlgren, Superintendent of the Dahlgren Mining Company, of Lewis, has settled the company's indebtedness, and work on the mine will be resumed by Captain Dahlgren, who has a lease of the property.

The defeat of Randall for the Speakership was received at Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, with great disappointment by the Democratic leaders. It is the almost unanimous opinion that the leaders at Washington have made a mistake, and that the possibility of electing a Democratic President is further off than ever.

The decrease of the public debt during November was 1,721,670; decrease since June 30th, 41,308,146; cash in Treasury, $64,768,513; gold certificates, 859,329 20; silver certificates, 101,782,611; certificates of deposit, 14,465,000; refunding certificates, 315,450; legal tenders, 346,631,016.

It has generally been conceded that the Mormons voted almost solid for Mr. Cassidy last year. We have heard this given as the principal reason for Mr. Powning's overwhelming defeat. If this be true, to what must we attribute the defeat of the Washoe man?—Austin Reville.

To the fact that he did not receive a sufficient number of votes.

Ex Secretary Benjamin H. Bristow, formerly of Kentucky, now resides in New York. His only daughter was married there on November 21st, to Eben Sumner Draper, of Massachusetts.

ALASKA'S GOVERNMENT.

Summary of the Provisions of Senator Miller's Bill.

Senator Miller will introduce a bill in the Senate this week to provide a civil government for Alaska. Section one provides that Alaska shall be a civil and judicial district. Section two provides for the establishment of a District Court and the appointment of a District Judge to perform also the duties of Governor, ex officio, and to see that the laws are executed. Section three provides for the appointment of a Clerk of the Court, who also shall be Treasurer of the District and ex officio Register and Receiver of the Land Office at Sitka and Recorder of Deeds and Registrar of Wills for the Territory. Section four provides for the appointment of five Commissioners, who shall reside, one at Wrangell, one at Sitka, one at Oonahaska and one at Kodiak. They shall act as Justices of the Peace, Notaries Public, etc. Section five provides for the appointment of a United District Attorney, who shall also be ex-officio Surveyor General of the Territory. Section six makes the Collector of Customs for the District ex-officio Marshal. He is given power to appoint five Deputy Marshals. The general laws of Oregon, civil and criminal, so far as applicable, are made the laws of Alaska. The District Court is given exclusive jurisdiction in all chancery cases, disputes concerning the title to land or mining property and all trials of capital offenses. Provision is made for setting all jury trials. It is provided that all the territory embraced in said District, excepting the groups of islands which constitute the United States Government Reservation, shall be a surveying and land district, with officers at Sitka, and the laws now in force for the disposal and management of the public domain, under title 32 of the revised statutes, are made applicable to Alaska. Indians are not to be disturbed in the possession of their lands and the United States is to relinquish title to such lots of land as were specified in the transfer of the territory as belonging to the Russo-Greek Church or which have been occupied and improved by bona fide residents and citizens or corporations doing business in said Territory since, by permission of the United States authorities, and title to the same shall vest in the bona fide owners or occupants thereof upon the payment of a price per acre, to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior. Provision is made to confirm lands to missionary or religious societies. The Judge, Clerk and Attorney are to be appointed by the President, to hold office for four years and receive respectively salaries of four thousand and three thousand dollars. Provision is made for refitting the public buildings at Sitka and ten thousand dollars is appropriated to carry the act into effect.

Blaine's Surplus Revenue Plan.

The letter of ex-Secretary Blaine, proposing a new and original plan for the disposition of the surplus revenue from internal taxation continues to be the subject of much comment. Senator Miller, of California, said Sunday that he regarded the proposition as both unconstitutional and impracticable. He believed that if the Government could properly bestow this revenue upon the States as proposed by Mr. Blaine, it had a right to go into the States and see that the money was properly expended; that it should not be wasted nor extravagantly spent.

"The tax upon whisky, for example," said Senator Miller, "is nothing more nor less than a tax upon grain from which it is made. Kansas and Indiana are both large corn producing States. Now let us suppose that the Government of Indiana is honestly and economically administered; that her internal affairs are wisely regulated and that taxation is light. On the other hand, for the purpose of illustration, let us say that the Government of Kansas is loosely conducted, that the moneys of the State are squandered and that her State officials and Legislators are unworthy men. Do you think it would be right to demand of the people of Indiana the payment of a tax to be handed over to the State of Kansas for the payment of her debts? The money proposed to be distributed to some of the States would more than pay all their expense. I believe the plan is a direct encouragement to extravagance and dishonesty."

Officers Elected.

At a stated communication of Winnemucca Lodge, No. 16, F. & A. M., held Saturday evening, December 1st, the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year: E. D. Kelley, W. M., G. F. Muller, S. W., I. N. Levy, J. W., M. B. Staunton, Treasurer, and C. S. Osborn, Secretary. The installation ceremonies will take place on the Saturday evening next preceding the feast of St. John the Evangelist.

The Congressional Programme.

The Republicans say that the Democratic programme for '84 has been laid down, and that New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Ohio will never falter in demanding the election of a candidate representing a protective tariff. The majority of the Democrats are willing to meet this issue, and they are confident of success. They not only claim that New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and California can be carried for revenue reform, but that the feeling in the northwest, which made possible the election of a majority of the Democratic Representatives in Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana and Ohio on the tariff issue, will give the electoral votes of at least three of those States for the Democratic candidate next year. It is asserted that the tariff policy of the Democratic party in the House will be a surprise to the Republican leaders. That policy, it is asserted, will not be to bring in a bill calculated to alarm the various industrial interests that depend for existence upon the maintenance of the existing system. On the contrary, it is proposed to attempt no revolutionary changes in the tariff law, but confronted with a necessity for the reduction of vast surplus revenues, the majority being opposed to the abolition of taxes on whisky and tobacco, the Ways and Means Committee will be organized to report a bill, which will abolish the duty on sugar, thus cutting off $40,000,000 of the revenue, and take the duties off a few other articles that are consumed daily by the people, and some native productions, in the manufacture of which labor is not extensively employed. A bill of this character, it is said, will be passed by the House and sent to the Senate, where the Republican majority can kill it if they choose. The responsibility will thus be placed, and on the issue so joined the parties will plead before the people next Fall. The Democrats rely upon their majority of seventy in the House to carry through the special tariff bill. The repeal of the duty on sugars, which is now quite generally discussed, would, in all probability, cost the Democratic party the vote of Louisiana. It has been suggested that as an offset to the abolition of the sugar duty, a bonus of one or two cents per pound might be offered native producers, but this scheme, which would be satisfactory to Louisiana, is evidently impracticable. The work of organizing the committees will probably take a couple of weeks. Tucker, of Virginia, will probably be made Chairman of the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, is looked for the Chairmanship of Naval Affairs, but Howett, of New York, will be a serious competitor. General Rosecrans will, in all probability, be given the Chairmanship of Military Affairs.

A Democratic Boom for Grant.

The disappointment of the Pennsylvania Protectionist Democrats finds expression in a letter written from the capital to the Philadelphia Times by its editor, Mr. McClure, which is sure to attract wide attention wherever read. He regards the election of Carlisle as a calamity, and expresses the opinion that it will enable the Republicans on a sectional issue to carry the country with either Arthur, Blaine or Grant, and he starts a boom for Grant that will be considered remarkable, emanating as it does from a Democratic source.

A Sudden Death.

The Elko Independent announces the death of Lieut. Charles Smith Jr., of Co. C, of the Eighth Infantry at Fort Halleck. On Thursday night the officer was slightly indisposed and on Friday morning he was found unconscious, in which condition he remained until the time of his death later in the day. He was 24 years of age and a young man of great promise, highly esteemed by all who knew him. His father is an attaché of the War Department.

What His Election Means.

A Washington special says: While the election of Carlisle means a general assault on the tariff, with all the injurious effects which must result from it, some other important measures will receive attention. That the Democrats meditate big raids on the Treasury is already apparent. Bills are already introduced by Republicans to amend and make effective the anti-polygamous laws and to provide for the admission of Dakota into the Union, but the success of neither seems probable.

Governor Crosby recommends to Congress—through the Secretary of the Interior—the immediate cutting down of all Indian reservations (now covering two-fifths of the area of Montana) to the actual wants of 18,000 Indians, throwing the lands open to settlement.

We learn that prominent Republicans are anxious to run Hon. James Crawford for the next Governor of Nevada and it is thought that Nevada cannot better honor itself.—Carson Index.

McClure on Carlisle's Election.

McClure, in a letter to the Philadelphia Times from Washington, says: "There is the wildest joy among the old Republican line over the Internal Revenue and Free Trade issue so distinctly made by the nomination of Carlisle. Old carpet-bag men, who have been long in disgraced retirement, are swarming about to-day like snakes in the breaking up of a hard Winter, and there is the inspiration of confidence throughout the whole sectional wing of Republicanism. Keifer has been indorsed, and that is only the beginning of an aggressive organization of the radical and profligate element of the party. The policy is a bold departure from all Democratic teachings and traditions, and will startle the country North and South." McClure predicts the division of the South. Leading Southern journals of Virginia, Tennessee, Louisiana, Alabama, North Carolina, West Virginia and Arkansas appealed to Southern Representatives to resist the issue on which Carlisle's election was urged, as the only method of safety to the South. Carlisle's election gives back Virginia to Mahone, and makes North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Tennessee and West Virginia doubtful, leaving the Democrats without the hope of a single electoral vote in the Northern States.

No Reason to Amend the Constitution.

The New York Sun editorially says: Inasmuch as the highest judicial tribunal in the land has already expressly declared that Congress now has power to prohibit plural marriage in all places under the exclusive dominion of the United States under the Constitution, we see no reason for amending the Constitution, as proposed by Rosecrans. There is law enough against polygamy already. The difficulty is in its enforcement.

A Valuable Discovery.

The Battle Mountain Messenger says a bed of fire clay has been discovered within 15 miles of Carlin by W. J. Robinson of that place.

Elko Elster's Husband.

(Chicago News.)

It leaks out that Elsie Elster is dreadfully sorry that she ever left the employ of the Madison Square Theater and the Hazel Kirke Company. She was drawing a large salary, and her hotel bills paid, and had a carriage constantly at her disposal. It seems, however, her husband, Frank Weston, is her evil genius. He was always dipping in and making it unpleasant for her managers, and last year he demanded that, in addition to her large salary, Elsie must have a certain per cent. of the earnings of the company on the grounds that she was the star attraction. The Madison Square people denied that she was of so much consequence as represented, and plainly told Mr. Watson that they would not accede to any such preposterous terms. The upshot of it was that Miss Elster and her husband went barnstorming on their own hook, and came to grief in less than three months. Gustave Frohman said the other evening: "Elsie Elster is as charming and amiable little lady as any manager ever had dealings with, but her husband is an overbearing, arrogant, unreasonable fellow, with whom there is no such thing as getting along peaceably."

They have got an Indian scare in Mason Valley, Nevada. The locality is but a short distance from the capital of the State, and within thirty hours' ride of San Francisco. Some Mason Valley farmer must have raised too big a hay crop this year, and wants the State for a customer. An Indian scare in Nevada sends the price of hay up some 200 per cent., and makes a plug horse worth as much as an animal that can go in 2:14.—S. F. Post

IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint of scrofula about you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA will dislodge it and expel it from your system. For constitutional or scrofulous Catarrh, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the only remedy. It has cured numerous cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

"Hutto, Tex., Sept. 28, 1882. "At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with scrofula, running sores on his face and neck. At the same time his eyes were swollen, much inflamed, and very sore. Physicians told us that a powerful, and of a late date, medicine must be employed. They united in recommending AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by a adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of any scrofulous tendencies; and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt and successful results. Yours truly, B. F. JOHNSON."

Having Admitted the Strength of the Evidence, an Eminent Physician takes Logical Action.

The following letter tells its own story. The signature will be recognized as that of the Physician-in-Chief of the De Quincey Home, and author of "Drugs That Enslave," "The Hypodermic Injection of Morphine," "A Manual of Nursing," and many other popular and valuable special medical works:

181 WEST TENTH STREET, New York, August 11, 1880, Messrs. SEABURY & JOHNSON, Gentlemen:—Like most of my profession, I am cautious about placing my faith in any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine. Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally. and BENSON'S CAPSICUM PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action.

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients, have convinced me that there is no other single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named.

Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect.

Very truly yours, H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D.

Mrs. John P. Jones, Master Roy Jones, and the two children, came down from Gold Hill last evening, on their way to Washington. Senator Jones will be up from the Bay this morning and the family will proceed together to the National Capital. Jewelry for the Holidays.

Wm. Goeggel, as is well known, is a very skillful workman, and just now he is rushed with orders for jewelry work for the holidays. In addition to his own work, he has received, and is constantly adding to his stock, all the latest styles of jewelry from the manufacturing establishments at San Francisco, which embraces everything that is new and novel in such goods. His prices are quite reasonable, as will be ascertained by those seeking articles in jewelry.

Beautiful Holiday Goods.

In selecting holiday presents, for either ladies or gentlemen, no one should overlook Myers' drug store. Johnny has been spreading himself in this line, and has now as handsome an assortment of dressing-cases, toilet sets, vases, pocket-books, hand satchels, and articles of bijouterie, as were ever brought to Reno. Go and look at Myers' pretty things, by all means.

Not Guilty.

S. Rosenthal, who was indicted in Nye county last Spring for arson, in setting fire to his store in Grantsville, was tried on the indictment in Belmont last week, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Lamp Explosions.

The frequent occurrence of lamp explosions calls to mind a simple means, which is said by those who have studied the subject thoroughly to be a sure preventative to such accidents. It is pretty well settled that these lamp explosions are occasioned by gasses, which are generated in the lamp by heat, and it is said that a sure protection at all times is to keep the lamp about one-third filled with water, so that when the oil burns down the lamp will go out before the gasses accumulate sufficient to cause an explosion. In all lamps there is a small vent by the side of the burner, through which the gas is supposed to escape as fast as generated, and it is important that this vent should be carefully cleaned and opened every time the lamp is trimmed. With a little timely precaution of this kind no danger whatever need be apprehended from lamp explosions.

County Affairs.

The Commissioners in session last Monday, in addition to allowing the bills already published passed a resolution requiring all Constables to file with their bills a certificate of the Justice showing that the account tallies with his docket. They also ordered $2,000 to be transferred from the General Fund to the Road Fund with which to pay warrants drawn on account of Verdi bridge.

Felix Monet was allowed $200 for the right of way for a public highway over his ranch near Steamboat.

The funds in the Treasury were counted and found to tally with the Auditor's books.

The monthly reports of the County officers were received and filed.

Adjourned until Monday, the 10th.

A Handsome Display.

Pinniger & Queen have nearly completed arranging their new stock of holiday goods, which makes a display that will certainly be pleasing to the many visitors who are about to commence their holiday purchases. They have many things that both grown people and the little ones will want, as they have fancy work boxes, albums, Christmas cards, toilet articles and a line of goods that is almost unlimited in variety, and from which there will be no difficulty in making desirable selections. Holiday purchasers must be sure to examine this extensive stock of holiday goods.

Improving.

Yesterday a reporter called on John Adkins, the man who was wounded by Joe Allen, at the depot Saturday morning, and found him resting very comfortably. He says the wound is somewhat painful at times, though not especially troublesome. He sleeps well and retains his appetite. The ball has not yet been found and is supposed to be somewhere imbedded in the muscles of the abdomen. Mr. Adkins very sensibly declines to make any statements relative to the difficulty between himself and Allen, or of the immediate circumstances that led to the affair. He has lost no flesh and retains his usual healthy, robust appearance.

W. T. C. U.

The following officers of the W. T. C. U., were elected yesterday afternoon for the ensuing term:

President, Mrs. B. F. Leete; First Vice President, Mrs. W. M. Boardman; Second Vice President, Mrs. M. A. Augustine; Third Vice President, Mrs. A. B. Palmer; Fourth Vice President, Mrs. D. B. Boyd; Recording Secretary, Mrs. F. S. Cook; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Eva Barnes; Financial Secretary, Mrs. L. J. Flint; Treasurer, Mrs. M. A. Mosher.

A Comparison.

Some idea can be formed of the State Prison boot and shoe business by giving the amount manufactured and sold during the month of November in each of the three past years, as follows:

MANUFACTURED.

November, 1881, $2,139 27

" 1882, 1,846 92

" 1883, 2,513 54

The Asylum Racket.

Bon Bon Party.

Holsworth & Fulmer will give a bon bon party at Kimball Hall on Christmas. The music will be furnished by Kaufman's band, and tickets will only be $1.

Supt. A. C. Hamilton and wife, H. M. Gorham, Geo. B. Lester and W. E. Lester, accompanied Mrs. Senator Jones and family down from Gold Hill last night, and to see the Senator off this morning.

Governor Finkend, H. M. Yerington and Judge Belknap left Carson yesterday morning for the front of the Carson and Colorado, to be absent several days.

Headquarters for Clothing.

Those who want real bargains in clothing—bargains which they can exhibit to their friends with pride—will do well to call at the White House, as Abrahams Brothers have the biggest stock of clothing to be found in Nevada. They have suits and overcoats in great variety, and an immense stock of French, English and German underwear, ties, scarfs, hats, caps, trunks and traveling satchels. Those who trade at this house need never fear that any of their neighbors will show them goods bought for less money at another place. Their customers never come back to complain of anything bought at their store.

Elegant Christmas Presents.

Judging from the large sales now being made at Wm. Goeggel's jewelry establishment, it is plain to be seen that the people of Reno and vicinity appreciate the endeavors of an experienced and trustworthy gentleman in selecting for home trade goods such as can be sold at low prices, and yet guaranteed to be of the finest quality. Call and examine his exquisite stock before going to outside houses.

Holiday Cigars.

Cigars that are suitable for both Christmas and New Years can be had at E. Meyer's. Those who tried them on Thanksgiving Day said they were an honor to the house that sold them. Mr. Meyer says he does not reserve these cigars for a favored few, but treats all comers alike, considering that one man's money is as good as that of another.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-awf-lyr

Inflammation, coughs, catarrhs and pneumonia, resulting from colds, may be cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It allays the inflammation, removes the irritation and soreness, soothes the organs, and restores the sufferer to health.
